

CORPORATE BYLAWS
OF THE
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR SEARCH AND RESCUE, INC.

ARTICLE I - LEGAL FORM

Section 1. Corporate Entity

The National Association for Search and Rescue (NASAR) is a non-profit corporation existing and organized under the Virginia Non-stock Corporation Act and the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. NASAR is exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Section 2. Purpose

The Corporation is organized as a charitable and educational organization, which supports, coordinates, develops, informs, promotes, implements and evaluates search, rescue and all risk emergency response resources with the underlying principle of saving lives. It provides media for liaison and the exchange of information among international, federal, state, local and volunteer search, rescue and all risk emergency response agencies and organizations. The corporation is dedicated to the advancement of preparedness and skills; the development of improved equipment; the standardization of equipment, skills and procedures; the continued improvement of coordination between international, federal, state, and local and volunteer search, rescue and all risk emergency organizations and to the general support of volunteer search, rescue, and all emergency response organizations. The underlying purpose of all NASAR activities is to improve the quality and responsiveness of all search, rescue and other all risk emergency organizations during emergency operations.

ARTICLE II - INSTRUMENTS OF CONTROL

Section 1. Written Instruments

The Association shall be controlled through written instruments each defining authority and responsibility of appropriate groups. These shall be in order of precedence: Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Resolutions of the Board of Directors, Board of Directors' Policies, Administrative Policies and Procedures.

Section 2. Governing Bodies

The governing bodies of the Association shall be the following, in order of precedence:

1. Board of Directors
2. Executive Committee
3. Elected Officers (in order of succession)

ARTICLE III-- MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. General

Membership shall be open to all individuals and organizations involved in search and rescue operations, emergency response, disaster response, or emergency preparedness education activities or those supporting those operations or activities, subject to the standards of membership set forth in this Article.

Section 2. Membership Designations

The Board of Directors shall identify membership categories, as they deem appropriate.

Section 3. Voting Membership

The voting membership of the Association shall consist of any category designated by the Board of Directors. Voting members have the privilege of attending meetings, speaking at meetings, voting, nominating, resigning, having a hearing before expulsion or other punitive actions, presenting motions, resolutions or other business, inspecting official records of the Association in accordance with Va. Code 13.1-933, and insisting upon enforcement of the rules of the Association. Voting members will receive all official Association publications, may attend official functions of the Association at the voting member rate, will be eligible for member discounts on NASAR goods and services, and may receive such other benefits of membership as may be established by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Non-Voting Membership

The non-voting membership of the Association shall consist of any category designated by the Board of Directors. Non-voting members will receive certain non-voting official Association publications, may attend official functions of the Association at the member rate, will be eligible for non-voting member discounts on NASAR goods and services, and may receive such other benefits of membership as may be established by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Membership Approval

- A. Designated memberships will be approved on the basis of a completed application and the payment of required dues, as set by the Board of Directors.
- B. Membership applications by non-United States citizens will be approved only to the extent that the total voting membership of the Association held by non-United States citizens does not exceed 49 percent of the total voting membership of the Association.

- C. The Executive Director may, on behalf of the Association, reject an application for membership if he or she is in possession of information that indicates:
1. That the applicant does not meet the requirements of the membership being sought, or
 2. That the applicant has conducted him or herself in a manner contrary to the purposes and objectives of NASAR, as specified in the Articles of Incorporation, or
 3. That the applicant has made false or misleading statements in applying for membership.

Section 6. Membership Forfeiture

- A. All memberships automatically expire at the conclusion of the term for which dues were paid and must be reapplied for through either a new application or completion of an authorized renewal application.
- B. Any member who shall be guilty of any act or acts reflecting discredit upon this Association may be expelled by the Board of Directors, provided that no voting member shall be so expelled without a hearing, if so requested. A requested hearing shall be added to the agenda of the duly called meeting of the Board of Directors, which most closely follows the date of the request and conforms to notice requirements in Article XV, Section 2, Item C.

ARTICLE IV - DUES

Section 1. Establishment

Dues for the various classes of membership will be set by the Board of Directors and announced to the membership. The dues rate may be changed by two-thirds vote of a quorum of the Board at any duly called meeting or by a majority vote at a duly called membership meeting.

ARTICLE V - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Composition

The governing body of the Association shall be comprised of nine (9) members elected at large by the voting membership of the Association.

Section 2. Term of Office

- A. One-third of the Board shall be elected annually for a term of three years each, or until a successor is elected or appointed. The term of office shall begin on January 1, following the election, with the member being seated at the first in-person board meeting of the calendar year.
- B. Elected members of the Board of Directors may not serve more than three consecutive terms of three (3) years each.
- C. Any member duly appointed by the President to fill a vacancy on the Board may complete the term of office of the vacated position. If elected, that individual may serve not more than two additional consecutive terms of three (3) years each.

Section 3. Authority

The Board of Directors shall have the same rights, powers, privileges and duties which are generally conferred upon Boards of Directors, and in addition thereto, as enumerated in the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 5. Election of Officers

- A. Officers shall be members of the Board of Directors.
- B. Officers shall be elected by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
- C. Officer elections shall be held at the first in-person Board meeting of the calendar year. Elections shall be conducted only after the incoming board members have been officially seated at the meeting.
- D. The Executive Director shall be a non-voting Officer for the duration of his or her employment and shall be an invited participant at all Board meetings.

Section 6. Terms of Office

- A. Terms of office shall be one year or until a successor is elected.
- B. No Board Member shall seek election to an office unless the unexpired term of his or her election to the Board is equal to or greater than the term of the office he or she is seeking.

Section 7. Vacancy

- A. In the event that a member of the Board of Directors is unable to complete a full three-year term of office, a voting member may be selected to serve out the term.
- B. The full Board must be notified within two weeks of receipt of any vacancy.
- C. The President shall fill by appointment vacancies on the Board. If the unexpired term is longer than one year, the President should select and the Board should confirm, by a majority vote, a candidate for replacement.

Section 8. Removal

- A. By seeking and accepting election, individuals serving as members of the Board of Directors, acknowledge a responsibility to the membership of the Association to attend duly-called meetings and conduct the business of the Association. An individual shall forfeit his or her position as director, and be deemed to have resigned from the Board of Directors, if he or she has failed to attend four duly-called meetings at any time during his or her three-year term of office, without regard to whether an excuse has been sought or granted.

- B. In addition, individuals may be removed with or without cause from the Board of Directors if a majority of the voting membership voting in-person or by written proxy ballot at a special meeting, shall determine that the individual shall be removed. The question of removal shall be so placed before the voting membership if, at any time, the number of voting members required under Article VI, Section 2C to place an individual's name on the ballot for election should petition the Board of Directors, in writing, for an election on the question of removal. All such petitions must, at a minimum, contain the information required under Article VI, Section 2C and D.
- C. The Board of Directors, upon a two-thirds vote of the Board establishing a finding of "no confidence", can direct the President to replace any Committee Chair.
- D. The Executive Director may be removed from office pursuant to Article IX, Section 3.

Section 9. Advisors

- A. The voting members of the Board of Directors may approve by simple majority vote the addition or removal of advisors as non-voting members of the Board at any time they deem this action to be in the best interests of the corporation. Such advisory seats shall be designated by organization, rather than individual.
- B. There is a limit of one advisor per organization and the representative shall be named by the organization to which the Advisory seat is assigned.
- C. Advisors shall not be eligible to hold Officer Positions nor may they chair Standing Committees on the Board of Directors.
